

Support Team Canada

to attend the World Deaf Curling
Championships in Banff, AB,
March 2022

Fundraising Goal: $10,000

We are Team Logan, an interprovincial Deaf Women's Curling Team, and we have qualified to represent Canada at the 2022 World Deaf Curling Championships!

Financial Needs:

- Bonsel
- Registration
- Travel & Accommodation
- Team Equipment
- Practice Ice
- ASL Interpreter Fees
- Technical & Tactical Coaching
- Personal Training & Fitness
- Meals

We are beyond excited by this opportunity to compete for our country, and we are training hard to bring home the gold! We hope you will help us to realize our dream by contributing to our fundraising initiative.

Team Logan consists of five dedicated and skilled athletes and our coach:

- Skip Emma Logan (Two-time Scotties Tournament of Hearts appearances as Team Nova Scotia),
- Third Hannah Brown (U18 Provincial Champion),
- Second Holly Maschmeyer (Two-time Canadian Deaf Ladies Champion & 2015 World Junior Curling Champion),
- Lead Susanne Beriault (Four-Time Canadian Deaf Mixed Champion),
- Coach Mary-Anne Arsenault (Two-time World Curling Champion & Five-time Canadian Champion),
- Fifth Cecilia Tung (20+ year curler & 8-time BC Deaf Women's competitor)

Yours in sport and in gratitude,

Team Logan
